INSURGENTS WINNING

Washington, Dec. 19.—The Insurgents against the present rules of the House are leaving for their homes, jubilant with the progress they have made in stirring up an insurrection in the Republican ranks. They will tell their constituents that before the end of the session the rules will be amended. The Insurgents expected today that it is certain at least one change will be made. It is said that it is believed there would be no opposition in the Republican caucus to an amendment that would provide for one day each week for the calling of the committee on enrollment of bills on the union calendar and on the House calendar. This morning the most optimistic claim this is all that is necessary to from the present rules and that this change would enable the committee to get before the House all the important bills of various kinds. This, it is urged, would relieve the speaker of the liability of charges that he is preventing legislation demanded by the people. It is acknowl-

ent returned to the senate without his signature, the bill locating the boundary between Colorado and New Mexico, with a message giving as his reason the report of the attorney general to the effect that the bill made a material change in the line, shifting five post offices from one jurisdiction to the other. As soon as the message was read, Senator Teller declared that no important changes were made by the legislation, as the line established in 1861, following the 67th parallel very closely, the changes in its location not extending more than a quarter or a half a mile from the location generally recognized.

"I do not think," said Teller, "that anybody who knew anything at all about the subject, could have informed the President." "The effect of the bill," he said, "was merely to determine whether the line actually was in conformation with the previous action. Neither the commission nor the state of Colorado would have the right to change it without consulting the other states."

The House and Senate Adjourn. The House adjourned at 12:14 today until January 4th. The Senate adjourned at 12:50 until the same day.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF CHAVES COUNTY

Believing in party unity and concentration of forces in every Democratic endeavor from precinct to nation, and believing that party principles are best conserved and strengthened in united effort, and firmly believing that concentration for the coming battle, wherein the democracy of our Territory, and state, soon to be, shall lead to victory, cannot be commenced too soon; therefore, the Executive Committee of the Democratic Central Committee of Chaves county desires that there be held in the various Justice precincts of Chaves county, on Saturday, December 19th, 1908, at 7:30 p. m., conventions for the nomination in each precinct, one candidate for Justice of the Peace and one candidate for the office of Constable, such nominees to be the regular constituted Democratic nominees for said offices at the election to be held in Chaves county, Monday, January 11, 1909. Precinct Committees will call said conventions at the various Justice precinct polling places.
